Main pic: Emma

Emma trained as a Nurse and Midwife. She and her husband with their three daughters lived in Afghanistan and have been back in the UK for 12 years enjoying the challenges of life in local church alongside her ministry around the globe. She thanks God for her ridiculous sense of humour and sense of joy that keeps her going through the most harrowing of times both personally and in ministering to those facing suffering and persecution.

Release International serves the persecuted church by providing practical help and compassion for Christians who are persecuted, encouraging evangelism and being the voice to campaign on behalf of the oppressed. Emma will show us how the church in the West needs to learn lessons of the persecuted church through looking at the book of Acts.
